Course Description:

The course will cover the principles and practices of writing, and it includes writing college-level essays, review of basic writing skills, and written works. Furthermore, Writing 101 will also focus on narrative/descriptive, expository, and persuasive writing. It may be offered in modules.

Student Learning Outcomes (SLOs):

After completion of the course students will be able to:

1. Develop ideas about a topic for the purpose of writing, organizing, selecting, and relating ideas, and develop them in coherent paragraphs and essays.
2. Use a variety of writing styles for different audiences, and improve writing by correcting errors, restricting, and rewriting.
3. Write essays and other works to include drafts, journals, and in-class writing.
Course Structure:

This class will use an informal “lecture” format that emphasizes class participation, discussion and questions, and both individual and group work. A journal assignment will be required based on the reading assignments.

Class participation and attendance are very crucial for academic success. Please come prepared to discuss issues raised in the course.

Texts and Materials:

- Merriam-Webster’s Vocabulary Builder text.

- Please bring loose-leaf writing paper for each class meeting to be used for any in-class writing activities, etc.

- Additional Required Materials: A fresh, unused memory stick (if necessary); a spiral-bound notebook with tab dividers; a planner; a dictionary; a thesaurus; a folder with metal prongs and inside pockets and sheet protectors for one of the assignments. Note: Please use the memory stick to save all your essay work for any possible “rewrites.”

Online Text:
The OWL at Purdue
http://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/557/01/
(This is an online handbook that will teach you MLA [Modern Languages Association] format for college writing. You can also look up punctuation, grammar, writing process ideas, and other useful information such as citing secondary sources. You can also use this resource for any class you take that requires writing.)

Evaluation and Grading and Assignments:

- The final grade for this course will be determined from your performance on many small tasks rather than on a few major projects such as a term paper, mid-term and final. This means that a poor performance on any one task will not hurt you greatly, and a very strong performance on any one task will not help your final grade very much. Thus, it is highly important to complete and submit all required work. Indeed, the semester grade is a composite of various areas of academic work.
Thus, to do well in this class, you should plan to attend and participate in class on a regular and consistent basis. Academic success means consistently working at your best possible level. In addition, chronic lateness to class will also impinge on your participation since group cohesion will lose its effectiveness. Students are responsible for informing the instructor about all absences in a timely manner. Please communicate with the course professor.

Your final grade will be based on Individual and Group Work. It will be calculated using the following percentage scale: A=90 to 100%; B=80 to 89%; C=70 to 79%; D=60 to 69%; and F=50 to 59%.

Individual and Group Work

All work handed in as individual work must be done individually. This means that you need to be careful in writing your own words rather than “borrowing” words, phrases, or ideas from other students with whom you may have discussed an assignment. See the statement on Academic Honesty below.

Key Performance Areas in Individual and Group Work:

a. Readiness Quizzes .........................................................60 pts.
b. Short Papers .................................................................300 pts.
c. Journal ...........................................................................100 pts.
d. Midterm Examination ....................................................100 pts.
e. Final Examination ..........................................................100 pts.
f. Personal Review Cover Memo/Portfolio .........................100 pts.
g. Group Work ................................................................. 50 pts.

Total 810 pts.

Explanations of Assignments and Grading in each Key Performance Area

Readiness Quizzes:

Several times during the semester, you will be given a short objective quiz over the reading material you were to have prepared for that day.

It is best to take quizzes as scheduled. In the case of unavoidable delay or absence, students must e-mail the instructor immediately with an explanation of the situation in order to make alternative arrangements. Supplemental documentation may be required.

Short Papers:

Three papers (three to five full-pages in length) on assigned topics will be due at regular intervals during the semester to give you practice in developing and sustaining a clear thesis statement, an argument or a line of thought and writing other types of essays (e.g., narrative-descriptive, process analysis and persuasion).

Papers will be marked “A” (superior), “B” (above average), “C” (average), “D” (below average), “F” (failure), and “R” (paper must be rewritten). Appropriateness (whether the essay does what the assignment asks), structure and development of ideas, content, grammar, and mechanics will be considered in evaluating these short papers. A paper must receive a “D” or better to obtain credit.

Papers that receive an “R” must be rewritten and resubmitted to the instructor one week after you have received the graded or marked version of the essay.

Please notify the course professor by email message when the rewritten essay has been submitted electronically.

Two essays of your choosing and your Personal Review Cover Memo will comprise your Portfolio for the semester (see below).

Before resubmitting a rewritten paper, students must schedule an appointment with the instructor to discuss their paper so that their rewriting will be productive and effective. The appointment should be scheduled in a timely manner before one week has elapsed. Remember, papers marked with an “R” are due two weeks after you have received it. The grade for the rewrite will be the grade the student receives for the assignment. Please notify the course professor by email message when the rewritten essay has been submitted electronically.

No paper may be rewritten more than once. If you have a concern, please communicate in a timely manner with the course professor.

I will distribute a style format handout before these assignments are due.

For backup purposes, please make sure that you save all your short papers on a thumb drive (or memory stick) and/or make photocopies of your written work or saved with some other electronic means. In addition, please consider emailing yourself by placing the completed assignment (i.e., essays) in a Word document attachment.

All essays (including rewrites) must be submitted to the Turnitin website.

Note: It is best to submit all essays on time as scheduled. In the case of unavoidable delay or absence, students must e-mail the instructor immediately with an explanation of the situation in order to make alternative arrangements. Supplemental documentation may be required and points deducted. Only rarely will late work will be approved for credit.

• Journal

A specific topic will be assigned for you to write on as an entry in your journal. The main intent of this journal is for you to track your own development as a writer. Hence, it will serve as the major source for writing the final Personal Review Cover Memo in the Portfolio. The journal entries will be considered as in-class writing assignments that you complete as homework. Specific instructions will be distributed regarding this assignment.
For backup purposes, please make sure that you save your journal on a thumb drive (or memory stick) and/or make photocopies of your written work. In addition, please consider emailing yourself by placing the completed assignment (i.e., essays) in a Word document attachment.

Journals must be submitted to the Turnitin website. Please notify the course professor by email communication when the journal assignment has been submitted.

Note: It is best to submit the journal assignment as scheduled. In the case of unavoidable delay or absence, students must e-mail the instructor immediately with an explanation of the situation in order to make alternative arrangements. Supplemental documentation may be required.

- Midterm Examination

  The midterm examination will assess your comprehension of the course material from the beginning to the approximate midpoint of the semester. The exam may be composed of the following sections: multiple choice; true or false; definitions; and a possible mini-examination essay.

  Note: It is best to take an exam as scheduled. In the case of unavoidable delay or absence, students must e-mail the instructor immediately with an explanation of the situation in order to make alternative arrangements. Supplemental documentation may be required.

- Final Examination

  The final examination will cover course material from the approximate semester midpoint to the end. The exam may be composed of the following sections: multiple choice; true or false; definitions; and a possible mini-examination essay.

  Note: It is best to take an exam as scheduled. In the case of unavoidable delay or absence, students must e-mail the instructor immediately with an explanation of the situation in order to make alternative arrangements. Supplemental documentation may be required.

- Directions for the Personal Review Cover Memo/Portfolio

  The Personal Review Cover Memo for the Portfolio is an opportunity for you to explore your development as a writer and a person throughout the semester. Thus, students will analyze and evaluate their own voice and how it develops. Use quotations from your short papers, the journal, and any other relevant sources that show changes or continuities in your writing style, voice, attitudes, beliefs, and subject matter. This cover memo (see relevant page[s] in Hacker and Sommers text for physical formatting of a memo) will be submitted along with two essays of your choosing and other items like the checklist (see below). This constitutes the Portfolio for the semester. Specific instructions will be distributed to students before the assignment is due. Finally, please maintain objectivity by fairly analyzing your experiences that influenced your writing voice and refrain from expressing overly personalized bias.
Mandatory Minimum Requirements:

I. A specific assignment sheet and/or checklist will be distributed for the Personal Review Cover Memo/Portfolio. The portfolio checklist must be included in the submission per the specific instructions for its placement. Writing Portfolios that do not include the checklist will not be accepted.

II. The cover memo must be word processed. Cover memos handwritten in ink or pencil will not be accepted.

III. Each subheading (see below) must be answered with a minimum of three sentences.

IV. As with all writing assignments (e.g., journal entries, essays), please proofread the Personal Review Cover Memo for grammatical, spelling, and punctuation errors.

V. In addition, you may be asked to rewrite the cover memo if it does not address the six questions below.

VI. A folder with metal prongs and inside pockets and sheet protectors are required materials for the Personal Review Cover Memo/Portfolio.

The following questions must be used as subheadings in writing this cover memo:

1. What concerns (i.e., personal, social) did you contend with this semester?;
2. What skills (i.e., writing, social) did you build on?;
3. What struggles did you overcome?;
4. What efforts are still unresolved?;
5. What moral or academic or social issues remain highlighted for you?; and,
6. How far have you progressed as a student, a writer, and a person?

Please address and answer all of the above questions in your cover memo. Again, if the six questions are not addressed, it will be returned and it will need to be rewritten and resubmitted. If you have any further questions about this assignment, please do not hesitate to contact the course instructor.

Note: It is best to submit the Personal Review Cover Memo/Portfolio as scheduled. In the case of unavoidable delay or absence, students must e-mail the instructor immediately with an explanation of the situation in order to make alternative arrangements. Supplemental documentation may be required.

- Group Work

In the spirit of I-We:mta (“Working Together”), students will be assigned to a particular group to help develop analytical skills in relation to the assigned essays. All group participants are expected to be engaged fully by rotating through responsibilities with collaborating, commenting, and leading discussion, etc. In addition, discussion among group members should further comprehension of assigned essays by generating collaborative responses to assigned questions.
Note: Group work comprises a section of your overall course grade, so please fully participate in group discussion and activities.

- Attendance

Please plan to attend class on a regular basis.

However, if you have an unexpected circumstance occur that will disrupt your attendance, please notify the instructor as soon as possible. In addition, please contact one of your fellow classmates in your group about any missed assignments, handouts, review sheets, etc.

Please do not schedule outside appointments that conflict with the class meeting times and days.

Again, students are responsible for communicating and informing the instructor about any absence from class meetings in a timely manner.

PLEASE NOTE: Passing the course requires that you hand in all short papers and tests and other required assignments as well as your active participation in class discussion.

Himdag Cultural Component:

Students will be asked to write at least four journal entries concerning the “T- So:son” (“Our Core”) values (T-Wohocudadag—Our Beliefs, T-Apedag—Our Well-Being, T-Pi:k Elida—Our Deepest Respect, and I-We:mta—Working Together) developed by Tohono O’odham Community College. Journal entries will relate to specific essays and how the stories illustrate and/or do not illustrate the T-So:son.

An in-class activity may be planned to further understand the meaning of the T-So:son values.

Policies and Expectations:

- Academic Honesty

I encourage you to talk to each other about the readings and ideas brought up in class. However, in all assignments to be graded as individual work you are expected to do your own written work. It is best to express the ideas you use in your own words.

In the case of both individual work, words or ideas that come from someplace or someone else must be cited: “A good rule of thumb is this: Whenever you consciously borrow any important element from someone else, any sentence, any colorful phrase or original term, any plan or idea—say so, either in a footnote, bibliography, or parenthesis” (from “Academic Honesty in the Writing of Essays and Other Papers,” Carleton College, 1990).
Indeed, plagiarism is defined as “taking another person’s ideas or work and presenting them as your own” and “is especially intolerable in academic culture. Just as taking someone else’s property constitutes physical theft, taking credit for someone else’s ideas constitutes intellectual theft” (Your College Experience: Strategies for Success, 162). Furthermore, as the Tohono O’odham Community College Student Handbook, Academic Year 2010-2012, states, “Students must do their own work and submit only their own work on examinations, reports, and projects, unless otherwise permitted by the instructor” (26). Again, certainly, secondary sources used in any of your essays must be cited, and those sources must also actively engage with your essay’s subject.

Any instance of plagiarism is unacceptable and is grounds for an automatic failing grade. Indeed, “Submitting a paper you purchased from an Internet source or from an individual will cause you to miss out on the discovery and skill development that research assignments are meant to teach” (Your College Experience: Strategies for Success, 207). Search engines (and other computer software in Turnitin, for example) can easily detect instances of plagiarism in submitted work, so please do not plagiarize.

Incompletes

I—Generally, in order to be considered for an Incomplete, you must successfully pass and complete at least 60% of the course work with a “C” grade average or better, and then submit a written request to substantiate the “I” grade. The incomplete, however, is awarded at the sole discretion of the instructor, and each case is judged on individual merit and extenuating circumstance(s).

Note: The instructor requires that a brief written and dated request be either submitted before or by 4:30 p.m., Wednesday, November 22nd, 2017. A request, however, for an incomplete to the above email address is also acceptable. You must state the circumstances of your request and why you feel you qualify for an Incomplete. An “I” is not automatically awarded to students. Students, indeed, are responsible for requesting an incomplete grade from the instructor in a timely manner.

If a student is awarded an “I,” it is the student’s primary responsibility to maintain communication with the course professor for any further requirements for completion of course work. For any awarded “I” grade, a “Learning Agreement” form will need to be completed which will stipulate specific time frames for when work will need to be submitted.

For further clarification of the “I” grade, please refer to the current Tohono O’odham Community College Catalog that is officially in use.

Withdrawals

W=If you have not completed your course work in a timely manner, you may be withdrawn from the course at the discretion of the instructor.

If you miss four or more consecutive classes without a valid excuse and without communicating with the instructor (e.g., e-mail message), you will be withdrawn, and a “W” or “Y” will be recorded. Students, indeed, are responsible for contacting the course professor in a timely manner regarding any absences.

• Chronic Lateness

Persistent tardiness will not be tolerated since key information is usually given at the beginning of the class meeting. It is unfair, disruptive, and inconvenient for the instructor and your colleagues to repeat statements made at the start of the class session. Please try to arrive on time for each class meeting.

• Absences

From the explanations above, excessive absences are not a good idea in this course. While one or two missed classes will not harm an opportunity to do well, a large number of absences—particularly unexcused ones—will. It is always a student’s choice as to whether to attend a class meeting or not, but regular attendance is strongly encouraged. Again, if a student has missed a class meeting, please contact the instructor and/or a classmate (e.g., in your assigned group) to discuss any additional assignments, handouts, review sheets, etc. Students, indeed, are responsible for contacting the course professor in a timely manner regarding any absences.

Again, please do not schedule outside appointments that conflict with the class meeting times and days.

If there is, however, an extenuating circumstance(s), please communicate with the course professor about your particular situation as soon as possible.

• Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) Compliance

Tohono O’odham Community College strives to comply with the provisions of the Americans with Disabilities Act and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act. If you have a learning problem, physical disability, or medical illness that requires you to have any special arrangements, please inform the course professor as soon as possible.

• Cultural/Religious Observance & Accommodations

The college recognizes the importance of the religious and Native American cultural observances and practices of its students unless it will result in undue hardship for college programs. At least two weeks before the religious observance, students must submit to the course professor a written statement that contains the date of the observance. Absences for religious and cultural observance and practices do not count in the number of absences allowed by a course professor.

• General Classroom Behavior

In the spirit of T-Pi:k Elida (“Our Deepest Respect”), students should behave and speak in a mutually respectful, mature, and courteous manner when addressing each other as well as the course professor. Indeed, the classroom experience and environment should encourage positive feelings and thoughts for academic success. Because of this, any disruption of the lecture and usual classroom activities will not be tolerated.

In addition, during class lecture and other activities, students must turn off cellular telephones and other electronic devices. Text messaging is forbidden during the entire class meeting time.

Note: Computer laptops, computer tablets, MP3 players, iPads, and iPods are not to be used during the entire class meeting time. Please do not listen to music while class is in session. Again, all electronic devices are not permitted during the entire allotted class meeting time unless permitted verbally by the course professor for class meeting-related work only.

- Email College Account and Communication:

Please strive daily to check your Tohono O'odham Community College (TOCC) assigned email account. The college conducts most of its business through email communication. Indeed, important information, announcements, weather-related college closure announcements, grade progress reports throughout the semester, etc., are communicated through your college-assigned email account. If you are having difficulty accessing your email account, please contact the appropriate TOCC staff member to support your obtaining email account access.

- Coursework Submission:

Please notify by email communication when coursework (including any rewritten coursework) has been submitted either by electronic means (i.e., essays, journal assignment) to Turnitin (including the course professor’s email address) or by hand if submitted to the course professor’s mailbox (i.e., portfolio assignment).

- Strive to Maintain Keys to Academic Success*:

Participation: Come to class and stay involved. Participate in class discussions and activities, so you can develop your writing skills.

Self-discipline: Don't miss any of the deadlines. Give yourself plenty of time to do your studying and assignments. Set aside specific times each day and each week to read, reflect, and complete your assignments. Don’t wait until the last possible moment to complete your assignment. Start your work early. Having trouble? Please contact me. I’m here for you.

Habits of Mind are ways of approaching learning that are both intellectual and practical and will support student success. They were developed by the Council of Writing Program Administrators, National Council of Teachers of English, and the National Writing Project.

- Curiosity – the desire to know more about the world.
- Openness – the willingness to consider new ways of being and thinking in the world.
- Engagement – a sense of investment and involvement in learning.
- Creativity – the ability to use novel approaches for generating, investigating, and representing ideas.
Persistence – the ability to sustain interest in and attention to short- and long-term projects.

Responsibility – the ability to take ownership of one’s actions and understand the consequences of those actions for oneself and others.

Flexibility – the ability to adapt to situations, expectations, or demands.

Metacognition – the ability to reflect on one’s own thinking and use what one learns from reflection on one writing project to improve writing on subsequent projects.
